

FISCAL NOTE

HB 2279 - SB 2843

March 28, 2002

SUMMARY OF BILL: Deletes provision prohibiting local governments from suspending, revoking, or denying a permit to a business selling, distributing or manufacturing beer on the basis of the proximity of the business to a school, residence, church or other public gathering place if a valid permit had been issued to the business in that location prior to January 1, 1993.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Decrease Local Govt. Revenues - Not Significant

Estimate assumes the local governments will experience a decrease in privilege tax revenues from businesses that will no longer be eligible for permits under the provisions of the bill. This decrease is estimated to be not significant.
